

As a flight attendant I am against cell phone use on airborne aircraft. Not only is it annoying for other passengers to listen to people on cellphones when they are trying to rest for a meeting but it is a safety issue. In the event of an emerygency we need passengers full attention.